From Rick Recht:

We first heard Salaam on our first summer tour at one of the camps. Their sonleader, who was from Israel, introduced it to us and from there we made it our own by making it into a medley with Shlomo Carleback's Ki Va Moed. It's one of my favorite tunes to play because people not only sing, dance and jump, but they are also reminded to celebrate and have faith in the possibility for peace.

Translation: *Peace will yet come to us and to everyone.
Peace to us and to all the world.*
